This primarily includes various processes in connection with the holding of Annual General Meetings (e.g. registration for the Annual General Meeting, documentation of the right to participate and preparation of the list of participants). Processing also takes place - to the extent legally permissible - for communication with shareholders. In particular, personal data is processed in connection with Annual General Meetings for the purpose of processing the registration and participation of shareholders in the Annual General Meeting (e.g. checking the right to participate) and enabling shareholders to exercise their rights in the context of the Annual General Meeting (including granting and revoking powers of attorney and instructions).

- Other processing purposes: Outside the Annual General Meeting, we may process your personal data for purposes that are compatible with the aforementioned purposes (in particular for the compilation of statistics, e.g. for the presentation of shareholder development, the number of transactions or for overviews of the largest shareholders). In addition, we also process your personal data to comply with other legal obligations, such as regulatory requirements and stock corporation, commercial and tax law retention obligations, where applicable.

Finally, we may process your personal data if and to the extent necessary to exercise and defend our rights, e.g. to defend against shareholder lawsuits and claims.

If we process your personal data for a purpose not mentioned above, we will inform you of this beforehand in accordance with the statutory provisions.

2. Legal bases of the processing

We base the processing of your personal data for the purpose of holding the Annual General Meeting on the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) in conjunction with Article 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. c) and Article 6 para. 1 lit. f), where applicable in conjunction with para. 4, GDPR as the legal basis. The realization of the aforementioned purposes, in particular the preparation, orderly conduct and follow-up of the Annual General Meeting, also constitutes a legitimate interest in the processing of your personal data within the meaning of Article 6 para. 1 lit. f) GDPR.

The legal basis for other data processing is the protection of the legitimate interests of the Company or a third party as set out below in accordance with Article 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. f) GDPR.

3. Legitimate interests pursued by the Company

In individual cases, the Company may also process your data to protect the legitimate interests of the Company or a third party pursuant to Article 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. f) GDPR.
