

QA Automation Engineer

What are your key responsibilities?

- › Design and develop automation framework using Tosca test automation tool
- › Identify automatable test cases and estimating time required for test automation
- › Involved in peer review of test automation scripts and establishing that coding guidelines are followed
- › Perform system, integration, regression and automated functional testing of the application and generate system test defect/ review test reports based on testing results
- › Analyse requests for new feature, bugs or change request raised by client in bug tracking tool and identification of high level testing scenarios for the same
- › Involve in creation of automation test plan where needed
- › Attend daily meeting and report the status and issues in testing done

Must have skills

- › Have knowledge of spoken German
- › Extensive experience with bug tracking tools like JIRA
- › Knowledge of continuous integration and deployment tools (e.g. Jenkins) will be an added advantage
- › Experience with security testing, performance testing will be an added advantage
- › Foundation certification from ISTQB will be an added advantage
- › Analytical, proactive and out of the box thinking mind set
- › Passionate about delivering and executing high quality solutions
- › High level of commitment to client satisfaction and agility
- › Collaborate with others and build positive working relationships
- › Possess a strong work ethic
- › Excellent written and verbal communication skills

nagarro

Nagarro drives technology-led business breakthroughs for industry leaders and challengers. When companies want to move fast and make things, they turn to us. We solve some of the most complex business challenges leveraging cutting-edge technology with agility and innovation. We call this approach "Thinking Breakthroughs".

Today, we are more than 6,000 experts across 21 countries. Together we form Nagarro, the global services division of Munich-based Allqier SE.